

Student Mental Health Emergencies

Stevenson University Wellness Center

Faculty/Staff may come upon a student exhibiting concerning behavior in a classroom, office, lab, or any location on campus.

Presenting concerns may include, but not limited to:

- Suicidal or homicidal intent (Intent to hurt self or others)
- Displays self-destructive or aggressive behavior
- Displays emotional instability or impulsive behavior
- Displays bizarre, inappropriate, and/or unsettling behavior

Immediately call security for assistance: Dial 443-352-4500

Provide the following information to security:

- Your name, location, and phone number
- Name of the student
- Location of the student in crisis
- Description of concerning behavior
- Description of your reaction to the student (i.e. concerns, anxieties, fears and gut feelings)