

JANE FASHION
100 Campus Circle, Owings Mills, MD 21117
(718) 555-5522 | jfashion@stevenson.edu

SUMMARY Technical, sales, and styling experience in the fashion industry. Proficient in pattern designing and using CAD and Adobe Creative Suite software to enhance designs and styles. Excellent fashion design abilities and strong interpersonal communication skills.

EDUCATION Stevenson University, Stevenson, MD
Bachelor of Science in Fashion Design, May 2016
GPA: 3.6/4.0; Dean's List

RELEVANT EXPERIENCE

Bob Smith Fashions, Baltimore, MD August 2015 – Present
Design Intern

- Research fabric and trim for spring 2016 menswear collection
- Organize and maintain system to organize fabric swatches, sketches and flats
- Provide design input on line development and collaborate with lead designer to create new men's apparel
- Write specs that reflect creative, cohesive collections

Andy Johns, New York, NY May 2015 – August 2015
Assistant Designer

- Assisted with technical sketches (CAD)
- Prepared and cut first patterns for moderate outerwear
- Checked and corrected samples and maintained swatch book
- Updated project boards for internal line meetings
- Selected fabric trims

Macy's, Owings Mills, MD August 2014 – May 2015
Sales Associate

- Assisted customers with merchandise selection
- Arranged in-store displays for women's apparel and children's apparel
- Operated point of sales register; maintained helpful and friendly demeanor while providing customer service

ADDITIONAL EXPERIENCE

McDonalds, Eldersburg, MD November 2013 – August 2014
Assistant Evening Manager

- Promoted from counter person to assistant manager due to demonstration of efficiency, leadership, and punctuality
- Supervised eight counter employees
- Scheduled work hours for evening employees
- Responded to customer complaints

SKILLS

Computer-Aided Pattern Design	Photography
Flat Pattern Drafting	Adobe Illustrator
Draping for Apparel	Textile Science
Embroidery and beading layouts	Hand knitting and crocheting
