McKinney-Vento Act School District Liaisons:

Under subtitle VII-B of the McKinney-Vento Homeless Assistance Act, every school district is required to designate a liaison for students experiencing homelessness. Homeless liaisons have a number of legal responsibilities under the Act, including identifying youth who meet the definition of homeless and are unaccompanied. The education subtitle of the McKinney-Vento Act is overseen by the U.S. Department of Education. For more information click here.

HUD Funded Shelters:

The U.S. Department of Housing and Development (HUD) administers funding for homeless shelters and services under Title V of the McKinney-Vento Act. These funds are distributed to communities through a competitive grant process. For more information click here.

RHYA-funded Shelters:

The U.S. Department of Health and Human Services administers the Runaway and Homeless Youth Act programs. These programs provide funding for Basic Centers, Transitional Living Programs, and Street Outreach Programs that serve runaway youth and other unaccompanied youth.
