TOUR THE NEIGHBORHOOD

YOUR GUIDE TO LIFE IN AND AROUND STEVENSON

WELCOME TO THE NEIGHBORHOOD

Stevenson University is located in Owings Mills, Maryland, between the suburbs of Baltimore and the rolling hills of Maryland's horse country—so you can enjoy the liveliness of a residential college campus with nearby cities and the contemplativeness of rural surroundings.

For those wanting to see the city lights while never being too far from campus, Stevenson University is convienently located only an hour drive from Washington D.C., a two hour drive to Philadelphia, and only a three hour drive to the big city of New York.

The adjacent Owings Mills area is an up-and-coming business hub and a community for young professionals. With a varied assortment of restaurants and shopping centers, nearby outdoor adventures, and easy access to "Charm City," there's never a shortage of things to do.

It's easy to see why students from over 44 states and 18 countries choose to be a Mustang every year, and why Niche has ranked Stevenson #1 Best College Dorms in Maryland.

FEELING HUNGRY?

CHECK OUT OUR ON-CAMPUS AND LOCAL DINING OPTIONS

With 5 on-campus dining options, there's something for everyone. Grab a Starbucks coffee at the Garrison Coffee House, or enjoy a freshly made smoothie and sandwich at The Natural smoothie shop. Dining late at night? Yellas, a diner with a modern twist, serves up handcrafted milkshakes, sandwiches, and burgers.

Located in the Manning Academic Center, Café North serves up foods on our North Campus, with favorites fresh off the grill along side a variety of daily breakfast and lunch options.

Rockland Marketplace, Stevenson's main dining hall, is home to the widest selection of breakfast, lunch, and dinner options, serving up thoughtfully crafted meals in an all-you-can-eat style.

Plus, the Boulevard Shopping Center, located right 'down the hill' next to the entrance of Stevenson's South Campus, features a wide assortment of fast food and casual dine-in options, many of which participate in our Flex Dollars program for students. Terri's Cafe, located across from Stevenson's North Campus, is a Mustang favorite for breakfast and lunch. Stop in and tell them Stevenson sent you to get a discount!

WANT TO TRY SOMETHING NEW?

OUR 80+ CLUBS HAVE YOU COVERED.

Stevenson has a club for everyone, from special interest clubs like the Fiber Crafts club and the Tabletop Roleplaying Games club, to academic clubs such as National Student Nurses Association and the Teachers of Tomorrow, and even service clubs like our Food Recovery Network. In addition to our clubs, Stevenson offers 11 Greek life programs for students to join, 28 DIII sports teams, and several club and intramural sports teams.

The Center for Student Life and Leadership, as well as clubs such as the Mustang Activities and Programing Board, host on and off campus events for students to attend throughout the year. Annual favorites include the Wet and Wild Field Day, Stevenson's Got Talent, Paint U Party, Winter Formal, and the fireworks display on the field. Homecoming week is packed with activities, with students looking forward to the yearly bonfire, Haunted Hallways, Homecoming tailgate and game with friends and family, and the On the Yard party after.

Students are invited to explore outside of campus during events such as the Baltimore Speaker Series, Baltimore National Aquarium visit, Maryland Renaissance Festival, and the trips to New York City and Georgetown. Thrillseekers can test their courage on rides during the trips to Hershey Park and Busch Gardens, and show off their snow tubing abilities at Liberty Mountain Resort.

There are no shortage of things to experience while living as a Stevenson Mustang!
