

JANE FASHION
(718) 555-5522 jfashion@stevenson.edu

SUMMARY

Technical, sales, and styling experience in the fashion industry. Proficient in pattern designing and using CAD and Adobe Creative Suite software to enhance designs and styles. Excellent fashion design abilities and strong interpersonal communication skills.

EDUCATION

Stevenson University, Stevenson, MD

Bachelor of Science, Fashion Design

May 20xx

Professional Minor: Entrepreneurship and Small Business Development

GPA: 3.6/4.0; Dean's List: Fall 20xx, Spring 20xx

RELEVANT SKILLS

- Computer-Aided Pattern Design
- Adobe Photoshop and Illustrator
- Photography
- Flat Pattern Drafting
- Draping for Apparel
- Textile Science

RELEVANT EXPERIENCE

Bob Smith Fashions, Baltimore, MD

August 20xx – Present

Design Intern

- Researched fabric and trim for Spring 20XX menswear collection
- Organized and maintained system to organize fabric swatches, sketches and flats
- Provided design input on line development and collaborated with lead designer to create new men's apparel
- Wrote specs that reflect creative, cohesive collections

Andy Johns, New York, NY

May 20xx – August 20xx

Assistant Designer

- Assisted with technical sketches (CAD)
- Prepared and cut first patterns for moderate outerwear
- Checked and corrected samples and maintained swatch book
- Updated project boards for internal line meetings

Macy's, Owings Mills, MD

August 20xx – May 20xx

Sales Associate

- Supported customers with merchandise selection
- Arranged in-store displays for women's apparel and children's apparel
- Operated point of sales register; maintained helpful and friendly demeanor while providing customer service

ACTIVITIES

Member, Fashion Apparel & Design Club, Stevenson University

August 20xx – Present

Member, Photography Club, Stevenson University

August 20xx – May 20xx